

HAPPY HALLOWEEN

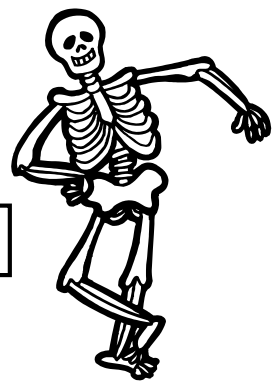

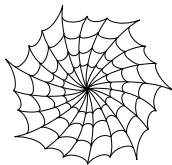

Halloween is a traditional celebration in the USA and UK and takes place on 31st October every year . It's a night for spooky ghosts, scary monsters, skeletons and witches. Children dress up in fun costumes and play all types of games but they love playing "trick or treat".

With their parents they knock at doors and when someone opens they shout "trick or treat". People give them sweets because they don't want to get a trick on them.

People make lamps with pumpkins . They cut faces, put a candle inside, and put them outside their houses to scare bad spirits and ghosts.
